

The Utah State Capitol is full of history and symbolism. See if you can find all of these hidden treasures around the building!

When you've found one put a check mark in the tiny hexagon next to the image.

The beehive is an important symbol because it represents a community working together, just like the citizens of Utah do. Can you find all of these beehives?

The Capitol has a very interesting history with electricity. See if you can find these important pieces of that history!

There are beautiful things from floor to ceiling!
See if you can find these Capitol details.